

Migrating to Australia?

Consider Canberra, Australia's Capital.

You're invited to meet the Live in Canberra team in London, Manchester and Dublin in February and March 2012.

Details of the various seminars and expos you can attend in each location are shown on the two pages below.

London

Free 'Canberra' Information Session, Thursday 23 February

This is a great opportunity to hear why migrants often call Canberra 'Australia's best kept secret' and learn about the ACT State Migration Plan.

Registration is essential - to register please click HERE

- Registration will be accepted until Thursday 16 February.
- Places are limited and may fill before this date - register early to avoid disappointment.
- Seminar approximately one hour with additional time for questions.

DIAC – 'Skills Australia Needs' Event

The Live in Canberra team will attend the Department of Immigration and Citizenship's (DIAC) 'Skills Australia Needs' events in London from 25 to 27 February 2012.

The DIAC events are focussed on Engineering, Healthcare and Trades (automotive, construction, electrical and mechanical trades) and are strictly by invitation only. To register your interest in attending these DIAC events please click HERE and follow the instructions. The invitations for these events are being managed by DIAC.

The event is an opportunity for invited skilled workers from these occupations to hear about skilled visa options for Australia. Invitees will also have an opportunity to speak with participating Australian State and Territory Governments, including the Australian Capital Territory (ACT) where Canberra is located.

Note: Although this DIAC event is focussed on three specific industries, the ACT's Occupation List includes many other sectors. If you work in a different industry we still want to hear from you – click HERE to view the current ACT Occupation List

Manchester

The ACT Government will participate at the State Migration Open Day in Manchester on Wednesday 29 February. DIAC will also be attending this event.

To attend the event you must register your interest HERE.

Candidates are required to provide personal and professional details to assess their eligibility for migration or suitability for employment opportunities. Upon successful selection you will receive an invitation to choose your preferred session time.

Dublin

Free 'Canberra' Information Session, Thursday 1 March

This is a great opportunity to hear why migrants often call Canberra 'Australia's best kept secret' and learn about the ACT State Migration Plan.

Registration is essential - to register please click HERE

- Registration will be accepted until Thursday 23 February.
- Places are limited and may fill before this date - register early to avoid disappointment.
- Seminar approximately one hour with additional time for questions.

Working Abroad Expo, 3 to 4 March

Live in Canberra will exhibit at the Working Abroad Expo in Dublin on 3 and 4 March 2012. This migration expo is open to the public and will be held in Serpentine Hall, RDS, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4.

The event website has further details about the event including the entry fees.

This event will be attended by DIAC along with a wide range of other exhibitors. The two day event will also include a series of information seminars.
