FROM THE GOLF COURSE TO THE ZOO, NEW CANBERRANS SEE ALL CORNERS OF CANBERRA

New Canberrans will take to the fairways at one of the city's most prestigious golf clubs next Monday 29 January at the next 'Welcome to Canberra' event, part of the ACT Government's Live in Canberra campaign.

The afternoon of twilight golf, to be held from 3.00pm at the Federal Golf Club at Red Hill, will be an opportunity for Canberra's newest golf enthusiasts to test their game on the local greens and meet with club staff.

Chief Minister Jon Stanhope said the program of Live in Canberra welcome activities has been designed to suit a variety of interests.

"The 'Welcome to Canberra' program provides a wonderful opportunity for our city's newcomers to meet new friends and to sample some of the exciting things there are to see and do in Canberra," Mr Stanhope said.

"Activities, which include dinners, movie nights, sporting matches and days out for the entire family, are proving to be very popular."

For newcomers looking to catch a glimpse of tigers or sharks in the flesh, the Live in Canberra team have lined up an afternoon of family fun at the National Zoo and Aquarium from 4.00pm on Saturday 10 February.

The day will feature an insider's tour of the Zoo, as well as a sausage sizzle at Monkey Island.

The free 'Welcome to Canberra' events are open to people who have moved to Canberra in the last 12 months. Numbers are limited and you can register by calling Simon on 6205 3188 or Lauren on 6205 0028 or email tellmemore@liveincanberra.com.au
